

GENISYS CREDIT UNION
OVERDRAFT POLICY

YOUR LIABILITY FOR OVERDRAFTS:

PLEASE REVIEW THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY. IF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND ANY PROVISION IN THIS "YOUR LIABILITY FOR OVERDRAFTS" SECTION, OR IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT US AT 1-800-521-8440, EXT. 5, MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY, 9:00 AM TO 5:30 PM OR VISIT YOUR LOCAL BRANCH.

A. GENERAL.

1. Standard Overdraft Practices and Overdraft Protection Plans. The Credit Union offers two kinds of services that allow for payment of your transactions when your account's available balance (defined below) is insufficient to pay the transaction: (a) our optional overdraft protection plan, referred to as the "Overdraft Transfer Service" as described in the "Optional Overdraft Protection Plan" section below, and (b) our standard overdraft practice which we call "Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service" as described in the "Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service" below. You can elect to decline any of these services at any time, which may result in your transactions being declined for non-sufficient funds ("NSF") if the available balance in your account is insufficient to pay for your transaction. The Credit Union also offers an overdraft line of credit for qualifying members. This Overdraft Policy describes only our Courtesy Pay and Overdraft Transfer Services. If you have questions regarding applying for an overdraft line of credit, please contact the Credit Union for additional information.

2. Your Obligation to Keep Records of Your Transactions. While we provide Courtesy Pay and Overdraft Transfer Services for your convenience and as a way to help you avoid overdrafts, NSF transactions, and associated fees, you are responsible for keeping track of the funds in your account that are available for you to use before you write a check, preauthorize a payment under our Bill Payment service, authorize an ACH transaction, make a cash withdrawal at an ATM, or use your debit card for a transaction. Among other things, you should keep a running balance that reflects all of your transactions. It is imperative that you keep track of the transactions you may have authorized (such as outstanding checks or automatic bill payments), as your available balance (discussed in more detail below) may not reflect these transactions until they are paid from your account.

3. What Does it Mean to Overdraw Your Account? "Overdrawing" your account means that there are not sufficient available funds (as described in Section C below) in your account to pay for a transaction, but we pay the transaction under either the Overdraft Transfer Service or the Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service, resulting in a negative "overdrawn" balance. Some transactions that can result in an overdraft in your checking account include, but are not limited to: (1) the payment of checks, electronic fund transfers, telephone-initiated transactions, preauthorized payments under our Bill Payment Service, debit card transactions, or other withdrawal requests authorized by you; (2) the return (unpaid) of items deposited by you; (3) the assessment of service charges by us; or (4) the deposit of items that are treated as not yet "available" according to our Funds Availability Policy.

B. PAYMENT OF OVERDRAFTS.

1. The Credit Union Has No Obligation to Pay Your Overdrafts. We are not obligated to pay any item presented for payment if your account does not contain sufficient available funds. If we pay a transaction that overdraws your account, we are not obligated to continue paying such transactions in the future. We may pay all, some, or none of your overdrafts, without notice to you. You are liable to us to repay any overdrafts on your account whether you created them or not. If you do not pay us, and we take collection action against you, you agree to pay for any costs of collection. We may close, without notice, any account with excessive overdraft activity, and report the account to a consumer reporting agency.

2. Fees Associated with Overdrawing Your Account – Courtesy Pay Fees. We assess a fee when an item is presented for payment that we either pay, which results in an overdraft, or which we do not pay because payment of the item would have resulted in an overdraft had we paid it. If we pay an item in accordance with our Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service (described in more detail below), we will charge you a Courtesy Pay Fee. However, we will not charge you a Courtesy Pay Fee if the transaction amount is less than $5.00, or if the transaction takes the account negative less than $5.00. In addition, we will limit the number of Courtesy Pay Fees charged to five (5) per day, per account. Other than these specific restrictions, there is no limit on the total fees we can charge you for overdrafting your account.

3. Fees Associated with Overdrawing Your Account – Overdraft Transfer Service. There are fees associated with using our Overdraft Transfer Service. These fees may be less expensive than Courtesy Pay Fees (described above) or NSF Fees (described below). If we pay an item in accordance with our Overdraft Transfer Service (described in more detail in Section F), we will charge you an Overdraft Transfer Fee. If you have elected both the Overdraft Transfer Service and the Courtesy Pay Service, there are circumstances wherein you will be charged both an Overdraft Transfer Fee and a Courtesy Pay Fee. These circumstances are discussed in greater detail in Section F. There is no limit to the total fees we can charge you for overdrafting your account.

4. Fees Associated with Overdrawing Your Account – NSF Fees. If we do not pay an item due to an insufficient available balance, we will return the item and charge you a Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF) Fee. The restrictions on fees discussed above for Courtesy Pay Fees do not apply to NSF fees. . There is no limit on the total fees we can charge you for overdrafting your account.

5. Fee Schedule. Please refer to the Fee Schedule for a current listing of all fees associated with overdrawing your account.

C. YOUR CHECKING ACCOUNT BALANCE.

1. Actual Balance Versus Available Balance. Your checking account has two kinds of balances: the “actual” balance and the “available” balance. Both can be checked when you review your account online, at a Credit Union-owned ATM, by phone, or at a branch. It is important to understand how these two balances work so that you know how much money is available to you in your account at any given time. This section explains actual and available balances and how they work.

2. Your “Actual Balance”. Your “actual” balance is the amount of money that is actually in your account at any given time, but not all funds included in the actual balance are considered “available” for transactions on your account. The actual balance is also referred to as your “acct. balance” on Credit Union ATM receipts, your “balance” in mobile banking, and your “ledger” balance when you use our automated telephone banking system. Actual balance is referred to in bold numbers in online banking. Your actual balance reflects transactions that have posted to your account, but does not reflect transactions that have been authorized and are pending. While the term “actual” may sound as though the number you see is an up-to-date indication of what is in your account that you can spend, that is not always the case. Any purchases, holds, fees, other charges, or deposits made on your account that have not yet posted will not appear in your actual balance. For example, if you have a $50 actual balance, but you just wrote a check for $40, then your actual balance is $50 but it does not reflect the pending check transaction. So, at that point, you have an actual balance of $50, but you have already spent $40.

3. Your “Available Balance”. Your available balance is the amount of money in your account that is available to you to use without incurring a fee. The available balance takes into account factors such as holds placed on deposits and pending transactions (such as pending debit card purchases) that the Credit Union has authorized but that have not yet posted to your account. For example, assume you have an actual balance of $50 and an available balance of $50. If you were to use your debit card at a restaurant to buy lunch for $20, then that merchant could ask us to pre-authorize the payment in that amount (or even a different amount). Under this example, if the merchant requested preauthorization in the amount of $20, we will place a “hold” on your account for $20 (referred to as an “authorization hold”). Your actual balance would still be $50 because this transaction has not yet posted, but your available balance would be $30 because of the restaurant’s preauthorization request that resulted in an authorization hold on $20 in your account. When the restaurant submits its bill for payment (which could be a few days later and for a different amount than the amount of the authorization hold), we will release the authorization hold, post the transaction to your account, and your actual balance will be reduced by the amount of the posted transaction.

4. Your Available Balance and Non-Debit Card Transactions. For electronic funds transfers (ACH), checks, bill payment, and any other non-debit card transactions, we use your available balance at the time a transaction posts to determine whether your account is overdrawn and whether a fee will be assessed.

5. Your Available Balance and Debit Card Transactions. For debit card transactions, we use your available balance at the time a transaction is authorized to determine if each specific transaction will overdraw your account and whether a fee will be assessed. Your available balance may not reflect all of your debit card transactions. For debit card transactions involving merchant authorization holds, we look at the available balance at the time a transaction is authorized to determine whether the transaction will result in an overdraft and a fee. If your available balance is insufficient to pay the “pre authorization” amount requested by a merchant, and you have not opted into the Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service for payment of everyday debit transactions, we will decline the request. If your available balance is sufficient to cover a merchant’s authorization request, the authorization request will be approved and an authorization hold will be placed on your account in the amount of the merchant’s authorization request.

6. If your available balance is insufficient to cover a merchant’s authorization request, and you have opted in to the Courtesy Pay Overdraft Services for everyday debit transactions, we may choose to approve the authorization request. In the instance where your available balance was insufficient to cover a merchant’s authorization request at the time of authorization without causing the account to have a negative balance (less than $0), and we choose to authorize the transaction using the Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service, we will charge a Courtesy Pay Fee on that transaction when it posts, regardless of the available balance in the account at the time of posting. We will not charge you a Courtesy Pay Fee if the transaction amount is less than $5.00 or if the transaction takes the account negative less than $5.00. In addition, we will limit the number of Courtesy Pay Fees charged to five (5) per day, per account. Note that transactions authorized with a merchant as recurring debit card transactions may be covered by the Courtesy Pay Overdraft Services regardless of whether you have opted in to Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service for the payment of everyday debit card transactions.

The following examples illustrate how this works if you have opted in for the Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service with respect to everyday debit transactions:

Example A: Assume your actual and available balances are both $50, and you use your debit card at a restaurant for $20. If the restaurant requests preauthorization in the amount of $20, an authorization hold is placed on $20 in your account, so your available balance is only $30. Your actual balance would remain $50. Before the restaurant charge is sent to us for payment, a check that you wrote for $40 posts to your account. Because your available balance is only $30 (due to the authorization hold of $20), your account will be overdrawn by $10, even though your actual balance is $50. In this case, if we pay the $40 check under the Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service, we will charge you a Courtesy Pay Fee as disclosed in our Fee Schedule, which will be deducted from your account, further increasing the overdrawn amount. When the restaurant charge is finally submitted to us for payment, we will release the authorization hold and pay the transaction amount (which may be $20 or even a different amount, for example, if you added a tip) to the restaurant. Because the amount of the restaurant charge was authorized when the available balance in the account was sufficient to cover the transaction, we will not charge you a Courtesy Pay Fee.

Example B: Assume your actual and available balances are both $5, and you use your debit card at a store for $25. If the store requests preauthorization in the amount of $25, an authorization hold is placed on your account for $25 using the Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service and a Courtesy Pay Fee is charged to this transaction because the available balance in your account is negative (less than $0). Regardless of the available balance in your account at the time this transaction posts, you will be charged a Courtesy Pay Fee for this transaction.

7. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU MAY STILL OVERDRAW YOUR ACCOUNT EVEN THOUGH THE AVAILABLE BALANCE APPEARS TO SHOW THERE ARE SUFFICIENT FUNDS TO COVER A TRANSACTION THAT YOU WANT TO MAKE. This is because your available balance may not reflect all of your outstanding checks, automatic bill payments that you have authorized, or other outstanding transactions that have not yet been paid from your account. In the example above, the outstanding check will not be reflected in your available balance until it is presented to us and paid from your account. In addition, your available balance may not reflect all of your debit card transactions. For example, if a merchant obtains our prior authorization but does not submit a one-time debit card transaction for payment within three (3) business days of authorization (or for up to thirty (30) business days for certain types of debit card transactions including, but not limited to, car rental transactions and international transactions), we must release the authorization hold on the transaction. The available balance will not reflect this transaction once the hold has been released. Refer to the section entitled “Authorization Holds for Debit Card Transactions” below for information about how authorization holds affect your available balance. Finally, your available balance may not reflect the most recent deposits to your account. Refer to the Funds Availability Disclosure for information regarding the availability for withdrawal of your deposits.

D. HOW TRANSACTIONS ARE POSTED TO YOUR ACCOUNT.

There are basically two types of transactions in your account: (1) credits or deposits of money into your account, and (2) debits or payments out of your account. It is important to understand how each is applied to your account so that you know how much money you have and how much is available to you at any given time. This section explains generally how and when we post transactions to your account.

To assist you in handling your account(s) with us, we are providing you with the following information regarding how we process the items that you authorize. When processing items drawn on your account, our policy is to pay them as we receive them. We commonly receive items to be processed against your account(s) multiple times per day in what are referred to as presentment files. Each presentment file received commonly contains a large amount of a specific type of item (Check, ACH, or ATM/POS). It is common for each of these presentment files to contain multiple items to be processed against your particular account. In this case, when multiple items are received at once, the items will be paid as follows: checks are paid in the order received; ACH items in each presentment file post credits first in the order presented, then debits in the order presented, and generally we will receive up to four ACH presentment files per day; ATM/POS items are paid in the order they are presented. Transactions performed in person, such as withdrawals or checks cashed at one of our locations or a shared branch, are generally paid at the time they are performed. Why this is important to you: The order in which items are paid is important if the account does not contain sufficient available funds to pay all of the items that are presented. If an item is presented for payment and your available balance is insufficient to pay it, we may, at our discretion, automatically transfer available funds from your regular savings or other sources pursuant to the Overdraft Transfer Service, pay the item pursuant to our Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service, or return the item (NSF).

The foregoing is a general description of how certain types of transactions are posted. These practices may change and we reserve the right to pay items in any order we choose as permitted by law.

E. AUTHORIZATION HOLDS FOR DEBIT CARD TRANSACTIONS.

1. What is an Authorization Hold? When you use your debit card to pay for goods or services, the merchant may seek preauthorization from us for the transaction. When we pre authorize the transaction, we commit to make the requested funds available when the transaction finally posts and as such, we generally place a temporary hold against some or all of the funds in the account linked to your debit card, based on the amount of the preauthorization request from the merchant. We refer to this temporary hold as an “authorization hold,” and the amount of the authorization hold will be subtracted from your available balance as authorization requests are received by us throughout each day.

2. How Does an Authorization Hold Affect Your Available Balance? Until the transaction finally settles or we otherwise remove the hold (for example, we may remove the hold because it exceeds the time permitted or we determine that it is unlikely to be processed), the funds subject to the hold will not be available to you for other purposes. At some point after you sign for the transaction, it is processed by the merchant and submitted to us for payment. This can happen hours or sometimes days after you signed for it, depending on the merchant and its processing company. These payment requests are received in real time throughout the day and are posted to your account as they are received.

3. The Amount of an Authorization Hold May Differ From the Amount of the Actual Transaction. The amount of an authorization hold may differ from the actual transaction amount because the actual transaction amount may not yet be known to the merchant when the authorization request is submitted. For example, this can happen in connection with transactions where your debit card is authorized before your actual transaction amount is known, such as at a restaurant (where you may choose to add a tip to the transaction amount) or a gas station. For these types of transactions, there may be no authorization hold, or the amount of the authorization hold may be different from the transaction amount. In some other cases we may not receive an authorization request from the merchant, and there will be no authorization hold reflected in your available balance. We cannot control how much a merchant asks us to authorize, or when a merchant submits a transaction for payment.

4. Length of an Authorization Hold. We are permitted to place an authorization hold on your account for up to three (3) business days (or for up to thirty (30) business days for certain types of debit card transactions) from the time of the authorization or until the transaction is paid from your account. However, if the transaction is not submitted for payment, we will release the authorization hold, which will increase your available balance until the transaction is submitted for payment by the merchant and finally posted to your account. If this happens, we must honor the prior authorization and will pay the transaction from your account.

In certain instances, when the amount of the authorization hold is either more or less than the amount of the actual transaction, we may maintain the authorization hold even after the purchase amount is actually paid from your account, which will decrease your available balance. However, in these instances, we will not maintain an authorization hold for longer than three (3) business days (or for up thirty (30) business days for certain transactions).

F. OPTIONAL OVERDRAFT PROTECTION PLAN – OVERDRAFT TRANSFER SERVICE.

1. Overdraft Transfer Service. We offer an optional overdraft protection plan that we refer to as our “Overdraft Transfer Service” where funds from a linked savings account are used for overdraft protection. We will look first to this service for overdraft protection before applying our discretionary Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service when your account is overdrawn. The Overdraft Transfer Service may save you money on the total fees you pay us for overdraft protection.

With this service, you authorize us to make transfers of available funds automatically from your regular savings account, plus the overdraft transfer fees, to cover overdrafts in your checking account. Each transfer counts as one of the six (6) limited transactions you are allowed each month from your regular savings. The Overdraft Transfer Service is an optional feature that can be added to your eligible checking accounts upon your request. To request or terminate the Overdraft Transfer Service: (1) call us at 1-800- 521-8440 ext. 5; (2) visit any branch and speak with a Financial Services Representative; or (3) mail a request to Genisys Credit Union, 2100 Executive Hills Blvd., Auburn Hills, MI 48326.

Overdrafts paid pursuant to the Overdraft Transfer Service are subject to a per-item Overdraft Transfer Fee as set forth in the Fee Schedule.

If you decline or terminate the Overdraft Transfer Service and are not eligible for our Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service, and there are insufficient available funds in your checking account to pay an item, your item will not be paid unless it was a previously authorized everyday debit card transaction. The item will be returned, and an NSF fee will be charged..

Transfers will appear on your periodic statements for each applicable account.

2. Limits on Overdraft Transfer Service. We will not transfer more than the available account balance in a linked regular savings account if the amount of the overdraft and related fee(s) exceed the available amount. If the available balance in a linked regular savings account is not enough to pay the full amount of the transaction(s) you have initiated on any day plus the Overdraft Transfer Fee(s), we will transfer up to the available balance to pay one or more transactions, plus the applicable fee for each item. Any transactions that are not paid by the transfer will either be paid through our Courtesy Pay Service or returned, and Overdraft Transfer Fees, Courtesy Pay Fees, and/or NSF Fees, as applicable, will be assessed.

The following example illustrates how this works if you have elected both Overdraft Transfer Service and Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service:

Assume your actual and available balances in your checking account are both $50, and your available balance in your savings account is $10. You write a check for $80. When the check is presented for payment, because you don't have $80 available in your checking account or regular savings account, the item cannot be fully paid using the Overdraft Transfer Service from the regular savings account. However, if you have also elected Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service, we may elect to transfer the $10 in your linked savings account and pay the remaining portion of the item using Courtesy Pay. In such case, you will be assessed both an Overdraft Transfer Fee and a Courtesy Pay Fee.

However, because Courtesy Pay is a discretionary service, we may instead elect to decline to pay the transaction. If we decline to pay the transaction, we will not transfer any funds from your linked savings account, we will decline the transaction, and we will assess you an NSF . .

3. We May Return Items Unpaid. We are not obligated to pay any item presented for payment if your account does not contain sufficient available funds. If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, then we decline or return the transaction or item unpaid and charge a related NSF Fee as stated in our Fee Schedule. You are responsible for ensuring that your account includes sufficient available funds to pay the transactions you initiate or authorize when they are processed for payment from your account, and you also acknowledge that the timing of when merchants or payees submit transactions to us for payment may vary.

4. Termination of Overdraft Transfer Service. We may terminate the Overdraft Transfer Service at any time with or without notice to you. Any owner of the checking account or any owner of a linked regular savings account used for overdraft protection may decline the Overdraft Transfer Service. To terminate the Overdraft Transfer Service: (1) call us at 1-800-521-8440 ext. 5; (2) visit any branch and speaking with a Financial Services Representative; or (3) mail notice of your decision to decline the Overdraft Transfer Service to Genisys Credit Union, 2100 Executive Hills Blvd., Auburn Hills, MI 48326. Your election to decline will be effective after we have received notice and have had a reasonable time to act on it.

G. COURTESY PAY OVERDRAFT SERVICE

1. Courtesy Pay. In accordance with our commitment to provide valued service and benefits, we may, if you qualify, at our discretion, pay overdrafts that would cause your eligible checking account to have a negative balance up to the amount of your limit, which is determined by us in our sole and absolute discretion. We refer to this service as our Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service ("Courtesy Pay"). Courtesy Pay is different than the Overdraft Transfer Service. Courtesy Pay is a backup to the Overdraft Transfer Service and will only be activated if funds are not available from the Overdraft Transfer Service.

2. What Overdraft Transactions are Covered? Courtesy Pay is available for the payment of checks, preauthorized payments under our Bill Payment Service, ACH drafts, and recurring debit transactions. Courtesy Pay is also available for everyday debit card transactions, if you opt-in, as described in the next section below. Courtesy Pay is not available for ATM transactions.

3. Optional Overdraft Transactions. The following types of transactions require you to "opt in" (in other words, you must provide us with your affirmative consent) if you would like to include them in Courtesy Pay. Choosing not to opt in may result in these transactions being declined:

- Everyday Debit Card transactions

We do not require you to authorize Courtesy Pay for your everyday debit card transactions as a condition of us providing Courtesy Pay to you for your checks, ACH transactions or other transactions. If you want the Credit Union to authorize and pay overdrafts for everyday debit card transactions through Courtesy Pay, you must provide us with your consent by: (1) calling us at 1-800-521-8440 ext. 5; (2) visiting any branch and speaking with a Financial Services Representative; or (3) mailing an opt-in consent form, "What You Need To Know About Overdraft and Overdraft Fees", to Genisys Credit Union, 2100 Executive Hills Blvd., Auburn Hills, MI 48326. This form can be located at www.genisyscu.org.

4. Eligibility for Courtesy Pay. Courtesy Pay is not a credit product. It is a feature that is automatically included with eligible checking accounts (unless you decline Courtesy Pay entirely as described below or information we get from a consumer reporting agency does not meet Credit Union standards). Eligibility is at the sole discretion of the Credit Union and is based on you managing your checking account in a responsible manner. Courtesy Pay may be available for checking accounts for which the primary checking account owner is 18 years of age or older. We reserve the right to limit Courtesy Pay to one (1) account per household or member. We may suspend or permanently revoke Courtesy Pay from your checking account, in our sole and absolute discretion, based on any one or more of the following criteria:

- You are not making regular deposits into your checking account;
- You don't bring your checking account to a positive balance for at least one full business day within a thirty (30) day period;
- Your membership is not in good standing;
- You are more than thirty (30) days past due or are in default in any other respect on any loan or other obligation to us;
- You have an outstanding balance due on an overdraft repayment plan;
- Your primary savings account does not have a positive balance;
- Your checking account is subject to any legal or administrative orders or levies;
- You have insufficient credit or negative credit history;
- You are a party to a bankruptcy proceeding;
- Any or all of your account(s) with us are being reviewed for improper activity or transactions;
- Your checking account is classified as inactive;
- You use the Service to pay items written to check cashing agencies;
- You have an unresolved prior loss with us; or
- We believe you are not managing your checking account in a responsible manner which may harm you or us.

5. Courtesy Pay is a Discretionary Privilege. Any payment made by us under Courtesy Pay will be made on a case-by-case basis, in our sole and absolute discretion. Courtesy Pay does not constitute an actual or implied agreement between you and the Credit Union, nor does it constitute an actual or implied obligation of the Credit Union. Courtesy Pay is a privilege that the Credit Union provides from time to time and which may be withdrawn or withheld by the Credit Union at any time, without prior notice, reason or cause.

6. Notification. If you qualify for Courtesy Pay, we will notify you that Courtesy Pay has been added to your account. However, we may refuse to pay an overdraft at any time, even though we may have previously paid overdrafts. We have no obligation to notify you before we pay or return any item. It is important to remember that Courtesy Pay is a purely discretionary benefit offered by the Credit Union. If at any time we determine that your account is no longer eligible for Courtesy Pay for any reason, we can discontinue it immediately without notice to you.

7. How Courtesy Pay is Administered. If you are eligible for the Service, we will generally pay your overdraft items up to a maximum of $1,000, including fees. We are not required to notify you of any non sufficient funds checks, ACH items, or other transactions that may have been paid or returned. We may refuse to pay any overdrafts without first notifying you even though your account is in good standing and even if we have paid previous overdrafts.

8. When is the overdraft payment due? The total of the overdraft (negative) balance in your checking account, including any and all fees and charges, is due and payable upon demand, and you are required to immediately deposit sufficient funds to cover the overdraft paid by us and pay the related fees.

9. Courtesy Pay Fees. A Courtesy Pay Fee will be charged to your checking account, in accordance with our Fee Schedule, for each overdraft that is authorized and paid through the Service. This means that more than one Courtesy Pay Fee may be assessed against your checking account per day depending upon the number of overdrafts authorized and paid through Courtesy Pay. You understand that your Courtesy Pay Limit will be reduced by the amount of each overdraft paid by us through Courtesy Pay and the amount of the related Courtesy Pay Fee imposed until such amounts are repaid by you as set forth herein at which time we may replenish your Courtesy Pay Limit by the amount of the repayment. If we choose not to pay the item/transaction under Courtesy Pay, you are subject to a Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF) Fee in accordance with our Fee Schedule for each such item each time it is presented for payment and returned unpaid due to an insufficient available balance. Your periodic statement will itemize Courtesy Pay Fees and NSF Fees for each cycle, as well as the year-to-date total of fees.

10. Transfers to Cover Overdrafts. You understand and agree that we have the right to transfer available funds to your checking account from any of your other account(s) with us (excluding IRAs and certificate accounts), including account(s) upon which you are a joint owner, in an amount equal to the overdraft and related fees.

11. Right of Setoff. In addition to any other rights that we may have, you agree that any deposits, future deposits, or other credits to any account in which you may now or in the future may have an interest are subject to our right of setoff for any liabilities, obligations or other amounts owed to us by you (e.g. overdrafts and any related fees and charges) and such is applicable irrespective of any contribution to the account or source of funds in the account. Moreover, unless you decline Courtesy Pay (see below), you consent and expressly agree that the application of setoff of funds in any account includes the setoff of government benefits (such as Social Security and other public benefit funds) deposited to the account from which the overdraft or related fees are paid to the maximum extent permitted by applicable state and federal law. Each person who causes an overdraft, which is paid by us, agrees to be individually and jointly obligated to repay the unpaid negative balance in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Courtesy Pay Service.

12. Default. You will be in default under the terms of the Courtesy Pay Service if you fail to live up to any of the terms and conditions set forth herein or you are in default on any loan obligation with us and/or a negative balance exists in any other deposit account with us on which you are an owner. If you are in default, in addition to any other rights we may have, we may temporarily suspend overdraft privileges, terminate Courtesy Pay, or close your checking account and demand immediate payment of the entire unpaid negative balance. You also agree to pay any collection costs, attorneys' fees and court costs that we may incur as a result of your default.

13. Termination; Suspension. We may terminate or suspend Courtesy Pay at any time without prior notice. In no event will any termination relieve you of your obligation to repay any negative account balance, overdraft fees, collection costs and attorneys' fees, if any. We can delay enforcing any of our rights without losing them.

14. Your Right to Decline Courtesy Pay. Any owner of the checking account may decline the service. If you prefer not to have the Service, visit us in a branch, contact us at 1-800-521-8440 ext. 5, write to us at 2100 Executive Hills Blvd., Auburn Hills, MI 48326, or send us a secure message in our online or mobile banking, and include your name, member number and a statement that you are declining the Credit Union's Courtesy Pay Service and we will remove the Service from your checking account. If you decline the Service, you will still be charged an NSF Fee for each item returned each time an item is presented for payment and returned unpaid due to an insufficient available balance.

15. Optional Overdraft Protection Plans. As discussed in more detail above, we also offer the optional Overdraft Transfer Service which links your checking account to a savings account, as well as other overdraft sources and may be less expensive than Courtesy Pay. To learn more, please ask us about these plans.

The best way to know how much money you have and avoid paying overdraft fees is to record and track all of your transactions closely.
